

Welcome to our service

Sunday 18th July

10.30am (All Age) Morning Worship. Lead: David, Preach: Margaret
Ephesians 1:15-end

7.30pm Prayer Meeting on Zoom

An Attitude of Gratitude

The screenplay for the film 'Cemetery Junction' was written by Ricky Gervais, which he loosely based on his early 70s teenage experience of growing up in a part of Reading near known as Cemetery Junction.

Freddie, the central character in the film, works for an unpleasant self-made man - Mr Kendrick – whose daughter Julie is a friend of Freddie's. As a result Freddie spends a lot of time at the Kendrick's house. Observing the way Mr Kendrick treats his wife, Freddie asks Julie when her dad last thanked her mum for the regularly delivered cups of tea. Overhearing the question, Mrs Kendrick replies, "1964".

It is not costly to say thank you, yet it is easy to get out of the habit and take things and people for granted. In Paul's letters he frequently offers thanks for the churches he is writing to, yet typically not directly to them but to the Lord for them and their faithfulness (e.g. Philippians 1:3.) Both direct thanks to people and thanksgiving prayers are important.

I must confess that my prayers are far more loaded towards asking God to do things than thanking him for what he has already done. I suspect I am not alone in that. So often we can bemoan what God hasn't done rather than open our eyes to all that he has provided us with already.

Despite all that he went through and his frustration with some of the churches he had planted, Paul never lost a sense of overwhelming gratitude which overflowed into his epistles. He's a model for us all. Jason

'I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers.'

Ephesians 1:16

Notices

Congratulations to Sophie Gaddis and Tim Whitten on their engagement.

We are no longer livestreaming our Sunday services now that most church members have returned. During July services will be recorded and uploaded to YouTube later the same afternoon. Services can be found on our 'St James Selby' YouTube channel. Jason

Information packs on church finances and giving have been sent out to church members. Please email treasurerstjameselby@gmail.com if you would like a pack and have not received one. Please leave your response envelopes in the offering plate; thank you to those who have already done so. Pdf responses are also available for downloading from the front page of our website stjameselby.org - please complete and email to treasurerstjameselby@gmail.com. Jason.

It really helps St James' if givers change to the new Parish Giving Scheme (PGS), as it is administrated for us by the diocese at no cost to St James' and enables us to reclaim the tax you have paid much faster than almost immediately. Although it means creating a Direct Debit you retain total control and queries are dealt with in-house rather than by a third party. All it takes is a single phone call or simple online form to set up. I've done it myself! Jason

The Government has indicated that it will permit congregational singing inside from 19th July. It has not, however, updated the guidance for worship yet. Once we have clarity from the government and then the Church of England we can be certain of what rules stay and which may remain. My hope is that we can sing from 25th July! Jason.

Refreshments after morning services: We are hoping to recommence this regularly in September but will re-start for one week only on 25th July to celebrate Arthur James's Thanksgiving that morning. Will all those who previously assisted with this contact me together with any new volunteers. The more involved the less often we shall have to be on the rota. Please send all names to me.
